

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

violations of any of the provisions of this act to the State's attorney, county solicitor, or county attorney or other prosecuting officer having charge of the prosecution of misdemeanors in the registration district in which such violation shall occur, with a statement of the facts and circumstances; and when any such case is reported to him by the State registrar the said prosecuting officer shall forthwith initiate and promptly follow up the necessary court proceedings against the person or corporation responsible for the alleged violation of law. And upon request of the State registrar the attorney general shall assist in the enforcement of the provisions of this act.

SEC. 24. That the State board of health shall have the power to adopt, promulgate, and enforce rules and regulations requiring the notification of all cases of sickness necessary for the preservation and protection of the public health, and for the collection of statistics of marriages and divorces.

Schools—Medical Inspection of Pupils. (Chap. 6829, Act June 4, 1915.)

SECTION 1. The State board of health shall have supervision over all matters pertaining to the medical inspection of school children in Florida, with such duties and powers as are prescribed by law pertaining to public health; and all school children shall be examined as to their physical condition at least once during each school year.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the State board of health, as soon after the passage of this act as practicable, to formulate and adopt such rules and regulations as will be necessary to provide for thorough and uniform medical inspection of school children in Florida, as provided in section 1 of this act.

SEC. 3. The county physicians of each county in the State of Florida shall act as county medical inspectors of school children in their respective counties, providing that in such counties where there are no regular appointed county physicians it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners to appoint a physician as county medical inspector of school children: Provided further, That the county physician or county medical inspector of school children be paid for their services out of the State board of health funds: Provided further, That no one physician shall have more than 2,500 school children under his charge, and in counties having more than 2,500 school children there shall be two medical inspectors of school children appointed, as aforesaid.

SEC. 4. The provisions of this act shall not affect cities of over 5,000 inhabitants where medical inspection of school children has already been established under the jurisdiction of the city board of health, provided that the city board of health adopt the forms prescribed by the State board of health and make full report to the State board of health.

SEC. 5. The expenditures of the State board of health for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act shall be certified by the president of the State board of health, and he shall make an annual report to the governor of all such expenditures, together with any special observations, recommendations, or facts that he may present, showing the value of medical school inspection from a public health standpoint or from a standpoint of educational efficiency, or otherwise, and such annual statements shall finally be submitted by the governor to the State legislature, when in regular session convened, and shall be published like other reports of State officers. The accounts necessary to carry out the provisions of this act shall be approved, audited, and paid in the same manner as is prescribed for the payment of other accounts of the State board of health and out of the State board of health funds.